SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Again we are at the threshold of international emergency. The price of freedom is already mounting. In terms of dollars and standards of living, it is going to be expensive beyond imagination. The cost in blood and human sacrifice may be immeasurable. What war will do to our American ideals, we cannot tell at this point.

It will profit us nothing to win again, and lose the character of our citizenship. In foreign lands, a far greater proportion of total resources are expended to "educate" youth, to feed his mind with that which will make him a willing tool of the powers that subjugate all personal attributes to the "good of the State". Many foreign governments have recognized more clearly than we, how the forces of mass "education" can be utilized to promote whatever end is sought by those in power.

In America, we have learned the need of having weapons of defense at our immediate disposal. Yet we appreciate that truth is more powerful than the sword. Our great public education system has grown in the last half century to amazing proportions. Most of us give at least "lip service" to the realization of its importance and its possibilities. Man cannot govern himself better unless he knows how. The very existence of self-government depends upon the increasing wisdom of the people. Even the winning of a war is determined in the classroom, the shop, and the laboratory, as well as on the battlefield.

We must not lose a generation–or a civilization–by relaxing our efforts in public education while fighting to survive.

As there is little major industry in the small towns of Union 5, the real estate tax places an unequal burden on many of them in their attempts to provide good schools. When the General Court of 1949 launched its austerity program to balance the state budget without new state taxes, this Union of eight towns lost over half of its state aid. It is not possible to run schools, improve "horse and buggy" buildings, educate increasing populations, and hire good teachers, with a dollar worth half as much or less, and still keep the total appropriations down. Just as bread and meat and clothing cost more, so must schools. We take pride in telling that, where towns voted the amounts recommended by the school officials last March, budgets will probably balance in spite of unprecedented price increases.

We need more state support. The new formula encourages a local effort up to $18 per thousand equalized valuation. It encourages a foundation program equal to at least $175 for each elementary pupil and $225 for high school pupils. It discourages poor schools. For the first year, some towns will benefit, some will lose. The total will increase for this Union to $34,500, about $8,000 more than at present. Unfortunately, its benefits are based on 1949-50 figures, when many towns did not spend as much, or make the minimum effort of $14 per thousand on equalized valuation. Some feel that it should be based on more current figures. Essentially, it can become a fair equalization program. Should it also include flat grant aid to relieve the tax burden in all towns? It totals around a million and a half dollars, far less than the aid rendered two years ago. Total school costs increased in New Hampshire in 1949-50 by $3,000,000; at the same time state aid was cut by $1,600,000. The real estate taxpayer in every town made up the difference.

Under the new aid plan, Croydon can raise $10,745.41, $18 per thousand on equalized valuation on its own.

State aid would be the excess of actual school costs over this figure up to $12,550, cost of the foundation program. As we spent only $9,182.72 on our schools in 1949-50, we are not eligible for state aid at present. If we spend over the $10,745.41 figure yearly on our schools, we should eventually get a considerable amount of financial assistance. Croydon will not benefit from state money as you have been under the old formula of 1921 vintage. It appears that this formula will not be continued.

We should be proud of the number of physical improvements completed during this year. Both schools have been equipped with modern movable desk and chair units. They have been thoroughly painted with attractive colors on the interior. The wood trim of the Village School was painted to preserve the wood and improve the appearance. We may have to replace the shingles on the rear half of this building.

Special articles in the warrant, such as fencing the playground at the Village School to prevent injury, will require your thoughtful consideration at the School District meeting. Because of inflated costs, and the scarcity of teachers, your budget of current expenses must be increased again. Paper stock is up almost twenty percent, and books are increasing by at least ten percent in cost. We can do nothing about tuition costs, retirement, and many others determined by outside factors.

I hope there will be some sentiment in favor of establishing a capital reserve fund for building a consolidated school in the years ahead, when financial conditions are more encouraging.

The considerable interest shown in your schools, demonstrated by the organization of a parent group, and the large attendance at the school district meeting, is most encouraging. Schools are an investment in people, and hence,- we believe, the very best kind. Returns are based on the extent of our investment. Though tax dollars come hard, no community should ever regret its outlay in better schools for our boys and girls.

JOHN W. DAY,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

Because school health service is wide spread, few of us have ever seen more of the service than the school nurse driving to and from school. Her car is loaded with a variety of things: the bag with hand basin, towels, soap, rubbing alcohol, clinical thermometer, bandage, adhesive tape, sterile gauze, tongue depressors, safety pins, large pieces of cotton cloth for emergency, a supply of D.D. especially approved by the State Department for use in the care of head lice, and an apron for the nurse to wear while she is helping in the home. Also in the car are school scales, measuring rod, files with the health report of each child, dental, immunization and other records. Frequently, there is a supply of first aid materials to be left in schools where it is needed. At times there are cartons of clothing, given by interested persons to the nurse for distribution where it will be needed and appreciated.

In winter weather, the nurse is ready for bad traveling; she carries burlap sacks, a box of sand, a shovel, an ax, a tow rope, and car chains. I must note here that it is a good neighbor who always helps me out of road difficulties.

There is a great deal more to school nursing than merely riding from one school to another. There is the duty of finding and correcting pediculosis–finding the reason for "all this scratching". Some skin disturbance is temporary, although there can be signs of some real disease. Deviation from the normal of the eyes, the ears, the posture, the feet and the poor general appearance of the child are carefully noted. There is the frequent inspection of the classrooms. Supervising all children during epidemics requires much time and travel.

The home visit is a most important part of the school health work. The purpose of the visits is to help the mother make better conditions for health. There are many things to teach. In a great many homes, there are no modern conveniences to create easy living methods. The length of time to complete a home visit varies with the object of the visit– half a day, an hour or perhaps a few minutes. Often a little help, advice and encouragement greatly reduces difficulties. To demonstrate the treatment for elimination of head lice, to help in the treatment of scabies, to teach the care of bedding and personal clothing, to aid in riddance of cooties and other insects– are all among the school nurse's activities. These corrections often require plenty of running water, and much courage on the part of mothers who have to carry, from outdoors, every drop of water for daily living. The need of extra is most discouraging.

While the nurse is in the home, she may talk over such important subjects as better personal hygiene, better daily health habits for children, the proper shoes to buy, the proper clothing for the cold winter mornings, the all-important "good breakfast". Too, there is the "cruel" lunch box to talk about. Often lists of suitable foods are presented the mother for her convenience in providing for a nutritious school lunch.

There are visits for the purpose of getting the home and the school running on schedule, assisting the mother to make the changes necessary when the child goes from home to school for the first time. The school nurse tries to be of the most help to the child who is sick or has a communicable disease. Homes are often visited and mothers instructed in the care of and control of these diseases.

Your school nurse works closely with state and local social and health agencies. She has full cooperation of the N. H. Tuberculosis Association, the State Sight Conservation Program, the Hearing Society, and the Division of Crippled Children's Service. She brings as many of these services to the school community as possible.

ZEPHYRINE L. HASHAM,

School Nurse.
